Pope Francis

"Our wounds can become springs of hope when, instead of feeling sorry for ourselves or hiding them, we dry the tears shed by others; when, instead of nourishing resentment for what was robbed from us, we take care of what others are lacking; when, instead of dwelling on ourselves, we bend towards those who suffer; when, instead of being thirsty for love for ourselves, we quench the thirst of those in need of us.

For it is only if we stop thinking of ourselves that we will find ourselves again. But if we continue to think of ourselves, we will not find ourselves anymore."

meet the power couple, GARY & VIDA GIROUX

Gary and Vida joined Legion of Mary in 1991. They are devoted legionaries praying for the needs of the parish and its parishioners.

From being members of Legion of Mary, they wear different hats on their heads such as being the church interior decorators, flower arrangers, gardeners, cleaners, drivers, pick up and delivery persons of people and stuffs needed by the parishioners and the list goes on.

Their longstanding commitment to the church for over three decades is a testament to their faith and passion for serving the Lord.

Their consistent involvement and actively participating in church activities showcases their dedication and love for their faith community.

Through their service, they have undoubtedly made a positive impact on the lives of those around them and have contributed to the spiritual growth and enrichment of the church as a whole.

It is evident that Vida and Gary embody the values of selflessness, dedication, and devotion in their service to the church, setting an example for others to follow in living out their faith with sincerity and purpose.

Their unwavering commitment is truly commendable and serves as a source of inspiration for all who know them.
